Chairman's Report to Council

Tribal Nations Legislative Days:

I first attended the Tribal Leaders Breakfast, which was held at the Phoenix Art Museum, it was nice affair and honored the previous leadership of the ITCA. This included the executive directors and attorneys as well as other key staff members.

I then attended the Tribal Nations Legislative Days being held at the state capitol in Phoenix. This was on the 19th of January, the meeting was held in the House of Representative building. This is located on the north side of the capitol mall complex. I met with some of the other tribal leaders that did not make the breakfast, as well as some organizational leaders and executives. Upon entering the House chamber I met US Congress Woman Ann Kirkpatrick, along with some of the royalties that were present representing their respective tribes.

The speeches given were well thought out and touch on the continued contribution of Indian Gaming to the financial well-being of the state. Other topics were, the land give away and respect for native sacred sites, antiquated mining laws and the sacredness of water. Continuing education was another topic of interest along with the effects of the clean energy bill, although the last one is mostly a Navajo Nation issue.

South Central Communication:

Our negotiations with SCC has come to an impasse, SCC continued to reduce the amount of services that they were willing to provide to the tribe and increasing the restrictions being put on the tribe that had the possibility to put the tribe in breach of contract. This would result in the loss of services to the tribe while allowing them to continue with their ROW. The end result being that the tribe will revert back to being a regular internet customer.

Gates:

I have made a FOIA request to the BLA LES for the reports concerning the destruction of property over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend, as yet they have not given any information or reports that we can use.

Southern Paiute Tribal Chairman's Association:

There was not a quorum present at the meeting so no business could be conducted. The main business on hand was that of elections for the executive offices of the association, our only recourse was that everything had remain in place until a quorum could be achieved. We agreed to leave all of the people in their respective elected positions.

Distracted Driving

- In 2013 alone, motor vehicle crashes claimed 35,500 lives; some of these fatalities involved people who drive for a living. According to Injury Facts 2015, the Council's annual report on unintentional injuries, the three biggest causes of fatalities on the road include:
 1. Alcohol (30.8%)
 2. Speeding (30%)
 3. Distracted driving \(26%\)

Impaired driving is driving while drunk, drugged, drowsy and/or distracted. All of these are dangerous. All of these are preventable.

In addition to the National Safety Council (NSC), these traffic safety and health advocacy organizations are working to end impaired driving:

- Consumer Healthcare Products Association
- Governors Highway Safety Association
- National Sleep Foundation
- Recording Artists, Actors and Athletes Against Drunk Driving
- Foundation for Advancing Alcohol Responsibility
- Students Against Destructive Decisions

• Paving the Way to Safer Roads

With advancements in cell phone technology, distracted driving has been an increasing and misunderstood trend. In fact, findings from a recent NSC public opinion poll indicate 80% of drivers across America incorrectly believe that hands-free devices are safer than using a handheld phone.

Learn why distracted driving, regardless if it's hands-free or handheld, is a dangerous threat to roadway safety.

• Educating Teen Drivers

For teens just learning to drive, car crashes are the No. 1 cause of death - mostly due to inexperience. Graduated Driver Licensing systems are proven to reduce crashes involving teen drivers by as much as 40%, minimizing common risks such as passenger distraction, nighttime driving and cell phone use.

Find more resources to help keep teen drivers safe.

MULTI-TASKING: THE BIG FAT MYTH

The brain quickly toggles between tasks – but can't do two things at the same time.

The activity in the area of the brain that processes moving images decreases by up to 1/3 when listening to talking on a phone.

• Employers are Taking Action

Millions of people drive as part of their jobs. Some are professionally trained drivers, many are not. If a job does not primarily involve driving, the employee often does not receive the same kind of safety management or engagement in driving safety that others may get.

Employers need to manage the safety of their employees on the roads, just as they manage other risks in the workplace. Start with an understanding of keeping employees safe. The NSC Journey to Safety Excellence incorporates leadership and employee engagement, risk management, safety management systems and measurement.

Defensive Driving Safety Training

Nobody knows driver safety training like the people who pioneered it more than 50 years ago. NSC created the first defensive driving course in 1964 and has been the leader in driver safety training ever since. NSC offers many options for defensive driving safety training for employees who are on the roads day in and day out. Select a Defensive Driving Course.

Off-the-job crashes account for 80% of employer crash-related health benefit costs, and half of crash-related injuries cause employees to miss work. According to Injury Facts, the average economic cost due to a crash was more than $1 million per death and more than $78,000 per nonfatal disabling injury. Employers pay significant costs associated with off-the-job crashes, including decreases in employee health, well-being, and productivity, and increases in lost time from work and insurance costs.

To prevent motor vehicle crashes involving their employees on and off the job, employers should:

- Apply principles of the Journey to Safety Excellence
- Engage employees to understand the risks they face while driving, take action to address the risks and implement measures to track progress
- Offer defensive driving courses and other training specific to the risks faced
- Offer programs for employees with alcohol or prescription or illegal drug problems
- Enact a corporate cell phone policy to prevent all cell phone use behind the wheel
- Enact a policy that requires employees to wear seat belts
- Ask NSC experts to assess your organization's road safety systems, and help design and execute a program

MAYBE YOU FELL IN LOVE.

MAYBE IT WAS A JOKE OR DARE.

MAYBE IT FELT LIKE YOU DIDN'T HAVE A CHOICE AT ALL.

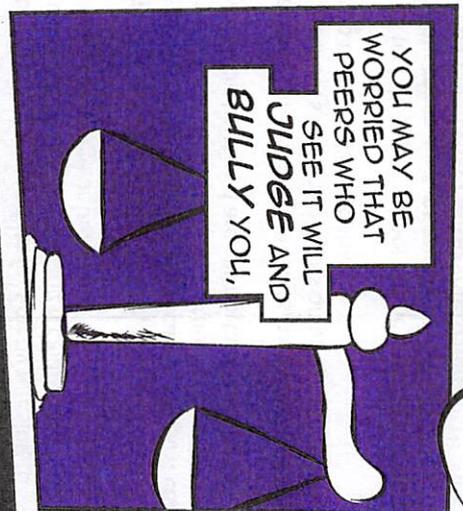

NO MATTER WHY YOU DECIDED TO SEXT, YOU PROBABLY THOUGHT THAT IT WOULD STAY PRIVATE.

ONLY IT DIDN'T.

NOW YOUR PHOTO OR VIDEO IS OUT THERE.

AND YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO.

YOU MAY BE WORRIED THAT PEERS WHO SEE IT WILL JUDGE AND BULLY YOU.

OR THAT YOUR FAMILY WILL BE ANGRY AND DISAPPOINTED.

YOU MAY FEEL LIKE THERE'S NOTHING YOU CAN DO TO ESCAPE THIS SITUATION.

BUT THAT'S NOT TRUE!

WHILE YOU CAN'T GET YOUR IMAGE BACK, YOU CAN TAKE STEPS TO:

- ★ GET IT REMOVED FROM WEBSITES.
- ★ HELP STOP IT FROM SPREADING.
- ★ GET EMOTIONAL SUPPORT.
- ★ DEAL WITH BULLIES.

TAKE CONTROL OF THE SITUATION AND YOUR LIFE AGAIN.

USE THESE TIPS

REPORT

This is one of the best ways to stop your image from spreading if it is on a website/app or being shared without your consent.

REPORT IT:

- To the website or app.

Trustworthy websites/apps work hard to keep off sexual images of minors and will remove them if notified. You can also report anyone who is posting or sharing images of you. For more information about reporting to popular websites/apps, visit https://needhelpnow.ca/removing_pictures.

- To CyberTipline.org.

This tipline can connect you with the experts best suited to work on your case. They may contact the website or the police, or reach out to you for more details. You can report without sharing your name and can even make a report for a friend if they need help.

- To the police.

They can help stop your image from spreading by working with websites/apps and talking to the people sharing it. You should know if the police get involved, you could face some consequences, too. It's illegal to share sexual images of minors even if they are of you. You may not be charged with a crime, but you may have to attend classes or complete community service.

- To a teacher.

If your pictures are being shared around school, your teachers and school administrators can help stop it by making clear there are consequences for sharing them.

GET SUPPORT

One of the worst things about a sexting incident is feeling like you're facing everything alone. But you have people who care for you and want to help. Talk to them!

- Your friends can stand up for you by refusing to forward the image and making it clear that it's not cool to share the image or bully you.
- A trusted adult can offer advice, help you report, and help you deal with other complicated things. It could be your mom, dad, an aunt, a school counselor, or anyone you trust and are comfortable talking to.
- Teachers can remind your classmates and peers about your school's rules and codes on bullying and help put a stop to any bullying behavior.
- If you feel that your school is ignoring the bullying, ask your mom, dad, or guardian for help. They can champion your case at your school, with your teachers, and other adults.

DON'T GIVE UP

Having a nude or sexual image of yourself floating around is scary. It can make you feel vulnerable and isolated. But remember, other teens have been in the same situation you are – and they have beaten it.

The people who have taken advantage of you want you to feel powerless. But you are not powerless. You are strong. You can take charge of your situation and take back control of your life.

What if I'm being blackmailed?

Blackmail is when someone tries to threaten or scare you into doing something. For example, teens may share sexual images with people they trust, only to have those people turn on them. They may threaten to send the images to teens' families unless the teens share more images.

If you're being blackmailed, you may feel helpless or guilty. You may think you don't have the right to say "no" because you shared the first image willingly. WRONG! Blackmail is illegal and you don't have to take it.

YOU SHOULD:

- Stop any communications with blackmailers. They'll try to use your conversations to threaten and manipulate you – don't give them the chance. Even if you have already started communicating with them, it's never too late to stop and report it.
- Block or remove the blackmailer from your contact list. If you decide to deactivate your accounts, contact the websites/apps for help.
- Make a report to the police and CyberTipline.org right away. Seriously. They can help. They may want to see any messages you've received from the blackmailer.

Car Seat Safety

Did you know that your child's car seat has an expiration date?

Do you know how old a child has to be before he or she is legally allowed to ride in the front passenger seat of a moving vehicle?

I did not know the answers to these questions, until today!! I took Laura's class on "Car Seat Safety", it was very educational and fun.

I know that when I "BUCKLE UP" my grandchildren I have done it correctly and safely. If you are a parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, babysitter, and anyone that travels with children in their vehicles, I encourage you to take this life saving class.

Let's all make sure that our future generation is safe and secure in our vehicles as we travel.

I would like to thank Laura Savala for a very wonderful life changing class.

Thank you - Laura
